Reference to the Rome Communiqué

- We are pleased to welcome San Marino as a new Member of the EHEA. San Marino will be supported in the implementation of its commitments with an agreed roadmap.
- Roadmap (appended)

Specific tasks

- To follow up the San Marino roadmap together with the Sammarinese authorities;
- To develop a timetable for implementing the higher education reforms, building on the milestones set out in the San Marino roadmap;
- To assist the Sammarinese authorities in implementing the roadmap and in developing specific policy areas;
- To assist in peer-learning activities and to facilitate cooperation;
- To report to the BFUG on the state of implementation of the roadmap by the beginning of 2024.

Reporting Minutes of working group meetings will be made available to the BFUG Board and to the BFUG on the protected part of the website. The Working Group will present regular updates to the Board and to the BFUG. Progress reports should be submitted at least three weeks before each Board or BFUG meeting. The reports should be analytical and describe the state of implementation of the Roadmap as well as further measures envisaged by the Sammarinese authorities. In between meetings, updates should be circulated by the Bologna Secretariat via e-mail. The final progress report will be presented and discussed at the latest during the first BFUG meeting in spring 2024.
Meeting schedule: First meeting: shortly after the BFUG meeting in April 2021, to establish a timetable for the implementation of the San Marino Roadmap. Further meetings to be held as indicated in the timetable to be established at the first meeting, generally at least one meeting per semester. Meetings may be held online or face to face as required. At least one meeting should be held in San Marino to allow broader contacts with Sammarinese stakeholders.
