INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR
BOLOGNA AND THE CHALLENGES OF E-LEARNING AND DISTANCE EDUCATION

Ghent, 4-5 June 2004

Practical information

The conference is hosted by the University of Ghent.

All sessions will be held at "Het Pand", Onderbergen 3, 9000 Gent.

Conference venue and hotels reserved for the conference are right in the historical city centre with all famous medieval monuments at easy walking distance.

Please note that hotel reservation forms should reach the IRO of Ghent University before April 30 in order to guarantee the reservation.

The main railway station, Gent Sint-Pieters has regular connections with all major cities in Belgium.

From Brussels-National Airport there is one direct connection to Gent Sint-Pieters railway station per hour. You can also take the train from the airport to Brussels South Station first and change there.

There are two direct connections between Brussels-South and Gent per hour.

Once you arrive in Gent Sint-Pieters station, the fastest way to the city centre is by public transport (tram lines 1, 10, 11 and 12). Get off at "Korenmarkt" (for the conference venue and most hotels) or at the next stop "Gravensteen" (for Hotel Gravensteen).

Alternatively you can take a taxi in front of the railway station.
