

Fostering equity and inclusion in higher education

How do we make internationalisation more inclusive?

Who are we?

We are Nuffic: the Dutch organisation for internationalisation in education. From primary and secondary education to vocational and higher education, research and adult education.

Our ambitionOur strategy for 2020-2025Nuffic 70 yearsISO certification

On behalf of the Ministry of Education, Culture and Science, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the European Commission, we work with our partners at home and abroad to help build a peaceful and prosperous society for everyone.

Our ambition

Our ambition is for all pupils and students to have the opportunity to acquire international competencies, whether at home or abroad. This will prepare them for the society and labour market of the future and ensure that they are ready to tackle the global challenges of our time.

What is happening in education?

Take action yourself

There is a growing awareness of the systemic inequalities in society and education. As of yet, internationalisation is not inclusive either, given that not all students and pupils have equal opportunities to go abroad. This is caused by, for example, their sociocultural or ethnic background, and the educational level of their parents.

Such unequal opportunities can have an impact on the subsequent careers of pupils and students. The inherent risk is that internationalisation thereby exacerbates social inequality.

Role of research – How to make impact?

- Map current situation
- Create more awareness
