BOLOGNA WORK PROGRAMME AFTER THE LEUVEN/LOUVAIN-LA-NEUVE MINISTERIAL CONFERENCE

Since the Prague Ministerial Conference in 2001, Bologna work programmes have been established between the two-yearly ministerial meetings, on the basis of the communiqués adopted by ministers, to work towards the overarching goal of creating a European Higher Education Area by 2010.

The present work programme ends with the Leuven/Louvain-la-Neuve Ministerial Conference of 28-29 April 2009. The first BFUG meeting after this conference to take forward the goals set with the Leuven/Louvain-la-Neuve Communiqué is scheduled for 28-29 September 2009.

It goes without saying that at national and institutional levels activities will continue to achieve the goals that have been set for the various action lines of the Bologna Process.

To ensure a smooth continuation of the work at European level too, BFUG is asked to take note of the events/activities that have already been scheduled for the period after the Leuven/Louvain-la-Neuve Conference. This document is open and will be elaborated further by incorporation of the decisions from the Leuven/Louvain-la-Neuve Conference, results of the independent assessment and Vienna-Budapest ministerial conference thus enabling elaboration of a work programme going beyond 2010 (until 2012?).
