

Milestones in the development of benchmark indicator on international student mobility

Bologna Process

European Union

When	Who	What
13/01/2010	BFUG WG Mobility	Prepare input for the technical definition of the mobility indicator to measure progression towards the 20% benchmark
21/01/2010	BFUG WG Reporting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Discuss policy relevance of concepts discussed and indicators proposed. - Agree on technical definition of the benchmark indicator to be proposed to the Bologna Follow-up Group. - Discuss policy relevance of supplementary indicators on international student mobility proposed.
18-19/02/2010	BFUG meeting	Agree on the technical definition of the benchmark indicator
February 2010	Meeting of EU WG Mobility	Discuss a proposal for a EU benchmark indicator
April 2010	Meeting of EU WG Mobility	Agreement on a technical definition of the EU benchmark indicator
26-28 April 2010	Meeting of Eurostat WG	Discussion with national statistical authorities on the changes to the data collection tools in order to collect the data required by the EU benchmark indicator
May 2010		First draft of a Commission position on EU mobility benchmark This will include a proposal for the definition of the mobility benchmark.
12/05/2010	BFUG WG Mobility	Discuss technical definition of the mobility supplementary indicators
16/06/2010	BFUG WG Reporting	Discussion and preliminary approval of indicators and structure of the integrated report, including mobility
24-25/08/2010	BFUG meeting	React to Commission position on mobility benchmark, if necessary
November 2010		Adoption of Commission Communication on EU mobility benchmark Including the definition of the mobility benchmark.
04/11/2010	BFUG WG Mobility	Jointly prepare recommendation for Council of the EU, if necessary
November 2010	BFUG WG Reporting
Beginning 2011		Potential adoption of EU mobility benchmark by Council of the EU